

Politics in America

Little George should thank his dad or the angle of the hanging chad
Terror came; warplanes roar; Who's sneakin' my liberties out the door

Billy C., oh woes me, what did you do to our country
Starring in affairs across the sea never matched Lewinsky

With open arms to Iraq, Bush shot his blinding flak
A region spoiled and oiled in the stormy attack

They're so shrewd and calculated
Selling cheap lies they're over-rated
Pigs two feet; we're segregated
Who is really liberated now?

Demos and reps battle among themselves with shticks
For a political fix they dirty each other with tricks

Contra affairs erupted; "I don't recall being corrupted."
The State was in deep, but Reagan was asleep

It was cover-ups and scandals, away walked the vandals
Like the time Nixon ran from the Gateman

Controlling Vietnam, the CIA watched Kennedy play
Didn't like his head so they filled it with lead

They're so shrewd and calculated
Selling cheap lies they're over-rated
Pigs two feet; we're segregated
Who is really liberated now?

© 1993 Monty Milne
All Rights Reserved

www.SpacePoetPublishing.com